A Wicked Good Fun Celebration of Life Supporting Global Links

Saturday, November 1
8 pm to Midnight

(PITTSBURGH) August 6, 2014 -- Join international medical relief agency Global Links for an evening celebrating the traditions of the Mexican holiday “Dia De Los Muertos (Day of the Dead)” and the work of Global Links, Saturday, November 1, from 8 p.m. to midnight.

In Mexico, November 1st is a day of celebration and remembrance of departed loved ones. Global Links is honoring these traditions with an evening of food, cocktails, art and entertainment. Guests will enjoy delicious Latin American cuisine from local chefs, crowd favorite cervezas, delicious vino and wickedly good vodka punch.

Guests are invited to attend in their most extravagant costume or dress in the Dia De Los Muertos colors of orange, red, yellow, purple or pink. A DJ will provide the soundtrack for dancing and mingling, and attendees will have the option of decorating their own sugar skulls or dioramas to take home.

Funds raised will support the life-saving work of Global Links. Tickets are on sale at www.globallinks.brownpapertickets.com, and more information is available by calling 412.361.3424 x203.

About Global Links

Global Links is a medical relief and development organization dedicated to improving health in - more-resource-poor communities, primarily in the Western Hemisphere. Every year, Global Links collaborates with U.S. health care institutions and the community to recover hundreds of tons of high-quality surplus medical materials that would otherwise be sent to landfills. These materials are shared with public health institutions that are providing care for their country's most vulnerable people.

In western Pennsylvania, Global Links offers numerous volunteer opportunities, donates materials to other non-profit organizations, and supports international medical service trips. For more information, visit www.globallinks.org.
